THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION AND REGALIA

The academic procession is one of the oldest traditions of colleges throughout the world. In medieval times the ordinary dress of the university scholar, whether student or teacher, was the dress of the cleric. He wore a long gown, and often in cold weather he wore a cloak with a hood which could be pulled up over the head for cover and protection.

Although fashions have changed since the 16th century, the scholars of the post-medieval period retained the academic attire. Eventually the attire was prescribed by university statutes to distinguish the different faculties and degrees-of-learning. The bachelor, master, and doctor gowns differ stylistically in cut and decorative motif.

The colorful hoods, which indicate fields of learning and the institutions conferring the degree, were originally worn over the head, but during the 16th century, caps were adopted and the hood was draped over the shoulder.

A long tassel is attached to the middle point of the top of the cap, to drape over the left edge of the mortar board. The tassel may be black, gold, or the color appropriate to the academic field of the wearer.

An Intercollegiate Code has been adopted to represent the different departments of learning and has set the standards for academic dress in the United States. The hoods are lined with the official colors of the college from which the wearer received his highest degree, while the collar of the hood denotes the academic subject area in which the wearer majored. These colors are assigned according to the following scheme:

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Letters & Humanities	White
Business Administration	Drab
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts	Brown
Forestry	Russet
Home Economics	Maroon
Journalism.....	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon

Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue

"AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL"
Katherine Lee Bates, Samuel A. Ward

*O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain.*

Chorus

*America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.*

*O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years,
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears.*

Chorus

*America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.*
